Re: Tribute to Walter Waters, Talented Bay Area Production/Stage Manager

Please come celebrate Walter Waters' life, talent and spirit with us at The Independent in San Francisco on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 14 at 7 PM.

Live music will be provided by Ras Michael, Earl Zero, Wadi Gad, D-Wayne Wiggins, Native Elements, Yellow Wall Dub Squad, Mabrak, Groundation, Haile Maskels and more. DJs Jah Warrior Shelter, Massive Sound International, Sister Yasmin, and Hadi will be juggling between sets.

The Bay Area music community suffered a loss on Monday, October 11, 2004 when Walter passed away from a brain stroke at the age of 49. He is survived by his partner Sandra Torres, his son, and his sister.

Walter, in his many roles for over 20 years, worked for nearly every world, reggae and hip-hop band and festival that passed through Northern California. His longevity in the business was unsurpassed. This benefit is an opportunity to celebrate his life, his work, and his commitment to the music community. It is a 21+ show with a $20 entry. Tickets are available at Ticketweb: <http://www.ticketweb.com/user/?region=sfbay&query=detail&event=556751>

The Independent is centrally located in the Alamo Square district of San Francisco at 628 Divisadero Street, San Francisco, CA 94117. Formerly the Justice League and the Kennel Club, 628 Divisadero has been showcasing live music in San Francisco for over 30 years.
